

COACHING MINOR

<http://chhs.unh.edu/kin/coaching-minor>

Description

The Department of Kinesiology offers a coaching minor. The coaching minor is an interdisciplinary curriculum designed to provide students interested in coaching at the youth, high school, or college levels with basic knowledge and skills necessary for competence in coaching. The minor consists of courses offered by several options within the Department of Kinesiology and recreation management and policy. The coursework lays a theoretical and practical framework for students interested in coaching.

Admission to the minor is based on successful completion of KIN 565 Principles of Coaching (grade of C or better), and a minimum GPA of 2.0.

Requirements

Coaching Minor Requirements

KIN 565	Principles of Coaching	4
KIN 505	Activity, Injuries and Disease	4
KIN 650D	Internship in Coaching (one 4-credit internship or two 2-credit internships)	4
Select a minimum of two of the following courses:		4
KIN 521	Theory of Coaching Basketball
KIN 522	Theory of Coaching Football
KIN 523	Theory of Coaching Hockey
KIN 525	Theory of Coaching Soccer
KIN 528	Theory of Coaching Track and Field
Select at least one of the following:		4
KIN 527	Scientific Foundations of Health and Fitness
KIN 560	Sport Psychology
RMP 560	Recreational Sport Management
KIN 562	Sports Media Relations
KIN 675	Motor Development and Learning
KIN 740	Athletic Administration
KIN 765	Advanced Topics in Coaching
KIN 780	Psychological Factors in Sport
Total Credits		20

Students will not be permitted to enroll in KIN 650D Internship in Coaching, until they have completed KIN 565 Principles of Coaching; KIN 505 Activity, Injuries and Disease and at least one theory of coaching class.

To graduate with a coaching minor, individuals must earn a grade of C- or better in all courses associated with the minor (not including KIN 565 Principles of Coaching, which will require a C or better).

Individuals will not be permitted to count coaching minor classes toward their major regardless of the major/degree program.