

PUBLIC HISTORY MINOR

<http://manchester.unh.edu/academics/degree-programs/public-history-minor>

Description

The public history minor is designed to provide students with the skills to work in the public as an historian. Public historians work in museums, archives, libraries, historic associations, historic houses, parks, zoos, arboretums, businesses, corporations, and in public planning of urban and environmental landscapes. Public historians work on translating historical research to the broad public audience.

Requirements

The minor is composed of five courses of 4 credits each, including an introduction to public history course and an internship, HIST 691 Internship, at a local historical site.

HIST 500	Introduction to Historical Thinking	4
HIST 595	Explorations	4
Select 8 credits of public history courses approved by minor supervisor at 500/600 level		8
HIST 691	Internship	4
Total Credits		20

For more information, contact Robert Macieski (robert.macieski@unh.edu), minor supervisor, at (603) 641-4135.