HDFS 834 - Curriculum for Young Children
Credits: 4
This course focuses on the design, implementation, and evaluation of developmentally-appropriate activities in a classroom of young children. This course takes the stance that curriculum is not simply activities or plans, but a product of societal, school, and classroom culture as influenced by particular views of development.
Equivalent(s): FS 834
Grade Mode: Letter Grading

HDFS 841 - Marital and Family Therapy
Credits: 4
This course provides an introduction to the theory and practice of marital and family therapy; major approaches to be examined include strategic, trans-generational, structural, experiential/humanistic, and behavioral.
Equivalent(s): FS 841
Grade Mode: Letter Grading

HDFS 843 - Families, Schools, and Community
Credits: 4
This course takes an ecological approach to emphasize the critical value of effective family-school-community partnerships in enhancing the education of young children. Models of family-school-community partnerships are explored. Practical knowledge regarding the experiences of those from diverse backgrounds to best prepare students to interact with, and support, all children and families is highlighted. Students actively engage within the community to build bridges between families, schools, and the greater community.
Equivalent(s): FS 843
Grade Mode: Letter Grading

HDFS 846 - Human Sexuality
Credits: 4
This course addresses the biological, psychological, and cultural aspects of human sexuality and gender across the lifespan. Opinions, attitudes, and values affecting societal responses to sexual issues are explored in relation to scientific research and theory. Students will be better prepared to deal with sexual issues in their personal and professional lives.
Equivalent(s): FS 846
Grade Mode: Letter Grading

HDFS 857 - Race, Class, Gender, and Families
Credits: 4
This course explores the intersection of race, class, and gender in family life in the US. Theory, research, and other relevant literature is used to examine the variety of family configurations in our society today and the diverse experiences that individuals and families have as the result of existing social, political, and economic institutions.
Equivalent(s): FS 857
Grade Mode: Letter Grading

HDFS 871 - Observation and Assessment of Young Children
Credits: 4
