SPANISH (SPAN)

Degree Offered: M.A., Graduate Certificate

This program is offered in Durham.

The program in Spanish in the Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures offers a Master of Arts degree in Spanish with courses in the following areas: Topics in Second Language Acquisition, Pedagogy and Methodology, Topics in Hispanic Literature and Cultural Studies, and Topics in Hispanic Linguistics and Cultural Studies. The program also supports work in interdisciplinary Hispanic studies and offers a Graduate Certificate in Spanish.

Admission Requirements

Applicants shall have received a bachelor’s degree from an accredited institution with an undergraduate major in Spanish or its equivalent. The personal statement for the graduate application should be written in Spanish. Two of the three letters of recommendation should come from current or former professors. Graduate Record Examination (GRE) scores are not required.

Financial Aid

Applicants whose permanent residence is in Maine or Vermont are eligible for the New England Regional Program for which tuition is assessed at the in-state New Hampshire rate plus 50%.

You may wish to visit the financial aid section of the Graduate School (https://gradschool.unh.edu/admissions/financial) for more information about graduate assistantships and other types of aid available to graduate students.

https://cola.unh.edu/languages-literatures-cultures/program/ma/spanish

Courses

Spanish (SPAN)

SPAN 907 - Topics in Hispanic Literature and Cultural Studies
Credits: 3

Repeat Rule: May be repeated up to unlimited times.

SPAN 999 - Master's Thesis
Credits: 1-6
Cr/F.

Repeat Rule: May be repeated for a maximum of 6 credits.

SPAN 901 - Bibliography and Methods of Research
Credits: 3
Required of all graduate students, to be taken concurrently with all graduate work from first to last semester during the program of study. An introduction to standard bibliographical techniques and to form and style in the preparation and writing of research findings. Preparation bibliographical essay is the final requirement for graduation. IA (continuous grading).

SPAN 903 - Applied Linguistics
Credits: 3
Required of all graduate assistants teaching in the departmental program. Discussion of current methodology and linguistic approaches to the teaching of Spanish. Instruction in the use of media, technology and the Language Resource Center. Readings, discussion, class observation and teaching portfolio. IA (continuous grading).

SPAN 995 - Independent Study
Credits: 1-3
Guided individual study with training in bibliography and organization of materials. Topics selected by instructor and student in conference. Barring duplication of content, may be repeated for credit.

SPAN 997 - Graduate Seminar
Credits: 3
Selected topics in Spanish linguistics, literature and cultural studies.

Faculty

See https://cola.unh.edu/languages-literatures-cultures/faculty-staff-directory for faculty.