I. ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL GRADUATE OR DIPLOMA PROGRAMS

A. Scope and Applicability of Rules (rules revised by faculty 5/29/14; 2/4/16)

1. Programs Offered. The law school offers graduate degrees in Commerce and Technology, Intellectual Property, and International Criminal Law and Justice. These rules apply to all students who are enrolled as graduate degree or diploma candidates at the law school.

2. Applicable Rules. Unless otherwise stated herein, the Academic Rules I through XVIII of UNH Law Juris Doctor program apply to graduate and diploma students.

B. General Admission Requirements

1. General Standards. Admission will be based on clear evidence that an applicant can complete the required coursework. The Graduate Programs Admissions Office will notify applicants admitted to UNH Law Graduate Programs, in writing.

2. Degree Required for Admission. All LL.M. applicants must have completed a:
   a. JD;
   b. LL.B., or
   c. recognized "equivalent law degree" or credentials that demonstrate "equivalent qualification" through relevant professional experience outside the United States as determined by the Graduate Program Admissions Committee. As a general rule, the Committee only reviews "equivalent qualification" where the applicant has earned a baccalaureate degree, has membership in a foreign general bar or patent bar membership, and five years experience in international intellectual property law experience as a practitioner or academic. Candidates admitted without a law degree under this provision must complete thirty (30) credits from a selection of required and elective curriculum. (amended by faculty 12/15/2016; 6/1/2018)
   d. Applicants seeking admission based on "equivalent qualification" are reviewed holistically and on a case-by-case basis.

3. Proof of English Language Ability. All international applicants shall submit current proof of English language ability that meets one of the requirements of (a) – (e) below.
   a. UNH Law accepts the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) and the Test of English for International Communication (TOEIC).
   b. UNH Law requires TOEFL scores of 213 (computer), 550 (paper), 80 (iBT) or IELTS score of 6.5 or TOEIC score of 605.
   c. UNH Law will not accept scores from examinations taken more than two (2) years prior to application to the program.
   d. Native-born residents of the United Kingdom, Australia, New Zealand, Republic of Ireland and English-speaking Canada, are exempt from this requirement.
   e. International applicants, who have received their undergraduate degree from a school where the language of instruction was English may have the proof of English language requirement waived with permission of the Director of Graduate Programs if:
      1. The applicant’s transcripts clearly indicate that the language of instruction was English; or
      2. The applicant submits a letter from an official school administrator certifying that the instruction language of the school was English at the time the applicant attended the school.
   f. The Admission Committee may waive the proof of language ability requirement under compelling circumstances. If an applicant does not meet the minimum English language proficiency requirement as set forth in (a) – (e) above, the Committee may request an online or telephone interview to assess English language capability. If the applicant demonstrates sufficient spoken and listening language skills then the committee may conditionally admit the applicant with the condition that he/she must enter and successfully complete a UNH Law approved English language program prior to matriculation.
   g. Admitted international students may be eligible for extra time on examinations. Students who seek such accommodations must comply with UNH Law Juris Doctor Academic Rules and Regulations rule III F (9).

4. Deferred Admission. If after an applicant has been accepted to a graduate program and has made the nonrefundable deposit the student must request deferred admission due to unforeseen circumstances, the Graduate Program Office will consider a student’s request to defer admission to the following semester or to the same term (spring/fall) the following year subject to the following conditions:
   a. The request must be made in writing. If approved, the applicant will be required to submit a nonrefundable deferment deposit within thirty (30) days. The deferment deposit, along with the seat deposit, will be credited toward the applicant’s tuition.
   b. An admitted student may only defer admission one time.
   c. The tuition noted on the applicant's original Letter of Admission is valid only for the term in which the applicant has been admitted. Any deferred applicant who later matriculates is charged the tuition of the academic year in which the matriculant enrolls. Likewise, any financial assistance awarded is offered for the term accepted. Deferred applicants must apply for new financial assistance prior to the semester in which the applicant will matriculate. Financial assistance requests must be received prior to April 1st for programs beginning in the fall semester and September 1st for programs beginning in the spring semester.

C. Graduate Program Grading

1. Letter Scale. All graduate degree candidates, except joint degree candidates, will be graded on a "High Honors", "Honors", "Pass", and "Fail" grading scale.

2. S/U Option. A student may exercise the option not to receive a letter grade (HHH-F scale) in one elective offering, unless the instructor has limited the evaluation to letter grades only. This option is available for a (1-3) credit course. A student may not exercise the S/U option for a course needed to fulfill a degree requirement or for a course needed to fulfill an elective requirement. For this purpose, a course which would qualify as meeting a requirement, which the student has already satisfied is an elective. In the event of successful completion of such offering, the student shall receive a grade of Satisfactory (S). In the event that such offering is not successfully completed, the
A High Honors equals 4 points; A Honors equals 3 points; Assessments.

2. Students who are not admitted to the J.D. program may elect to receive their graduate grades. (Adopted by faculty 10/1/2015)

3. Rank and Curve. Graduate degree candidates will not be given a class rank nor will their grades be factored into any curve applicable to JD students enrolled in the same course.

4. Assessments. In courses in which graduate and JD program students are enrolled, a professor may administer alternative exams or assessments for non-JD students.

5. Grade Values. For purposes of converting graduate program grades into a grade point average, the following values will be applied:
   a. A High Honors equals 4 points;
   b. A Honors equals 3 points;
   c. A Pass equals 2 points; each
   d. A Fail grade equals zero points.

6. Numerical Equivalents. A “High Honors average” will include any numerical average of grades on this scale falling at or above 3.5. An “Honors average” will include any numerical average of grades on this scale falling at or above 3.0 and below 3.5. A “Pass average” will include any numerical average of grades on this scale falling at or above 2.0 and below 3.0.

Advanced standing applicants will be graded according to J.D. Rule IV, including taking the same assessment as J.D. students except that such applicants shall not be included in the course’s B-mean calculation, if applicable. Degree candidates who do not matriculate into the J.D. program may elect to have their Rule IV grades converted into the graduate program grading scale described above. The GPA shall be computed based upon 24 credits earned in core courses and approved electives required for the program of study. Joint Degree candidates who do not meet the 3.0 GPA requirement will be offered the option of being awarded the Master’s degree if they can meet its requirements.

b. All Joint Degree candidates will be graded on a letter grade scale (A, A-, B+, B, B- etc.) for all courses completed for credit. The two exceptions are when a course has a mandatory S/U grading scale or the student has elected S/U grading.

Such a waiver does not transfer credits in but does permit the student to substitute another UNH Law course for the waived required course.

G. Program Plan
1. All Residential LL.M., Master’s and Diploma candidates will consult with their faculty advisor and the Director of Graduate Programs to complete a Program Plan. (Since all courses do not run every semester, once a Program Plan has been established, the candidate should be cautious in changing it.)
