

CHANGE OF COLLEGE

An undergraduate degree candidate may change from one college in the University to another only with the approval of the academic deans and departments of the colleges involved by submitting a request through the online change of major process or by submitting a change of campus request. This change must be approved by the academic department of the major to which the student wishes to transfer. Degree candidates in undergraduate online programs and any associate degree candidate must apply through the Office of Admissions to change colleges.