MUSI 401 - Introduction to Music
Credits: 4
Fundamental approach to analytical listening with attention to learning how to aurally recognize and apply the basic elements of music to a wide variety of specific musical works in oral and written contexts. Critical thinking and listening skills will be developed through study of music in a variety of cultural and historical perspectives. Some participation in musical life of the University may be required, unless this is the fully online version. This course does not fulfill a music major program requirement nor does it satisfy the Fine and Performing Arts Discovery requirement for any music major program.
Attributes: FinePerformingArts(Discovery)
Equivalent(s): MUSI 401H
Grade Mode: Letter Grading

MUSI #402 - Historical Survey of Western Classical Concert Music
Credits: 4
The study of the development of musical styles and idioms of Western European classical concert music in the context of selected historical and cultural aspects of Western civilization. Some participation in musical life of the University may be required. This course does not fulfill a music major program requirement nor does it satisfy the Fine and Performing Arts Discovery requirement for any music major program.
Attributes: FinePerformingArts(Discovery)
Equivalent(s): MUSI 402H
Grade Mode: Letter Grading

MUSI 403 - Roots of Rock
Credits: 4
Focuses on the musical styles, traditions, and social circumstances that lead to a distinctive form of American popular music in the 1950’s and ’60’s. In addition to developing critical listening skills to discern subtle distinctions among such styles and sub-styles as blues, folk, jazz, and country, the course also considers the diverse social trends that helped drive changes and developments in the various styles and genres covered. While some attention will be devoted to rock music of the mid-late sixties, the course emphasizes the various musical styles that preceded rock.
Attributes: FinePerformingArts(Discovery)
Grade Mode: Letter Grading

MUSI 404 - An Introduction to Music, Media, and the Moving Image
Credits: 4
Through selected readings, attentive listening, viewing, and discussion of a variety of films and multi-media productions, students develop a common vocabulary for analyzing music accompanying moving images. Students develop an understanding of the western and non-western musical conventions that work, often at a subconscious level, in conjunction with images to shape and cue audience responses to, and interaction with, visual cues. Media includes canonic Hollywood films, independent and foreign cinema, with explorations of non-Western films, video game scoring, television, and animation. This course does not fulfill a music major program requirement nor does it satisfy the Fine and Performing Arts Discovery requirement for any music major program.
Attributes: FinePerformingArts(Discovery)
Grade Mode: Letter Grading

MUSI 405 - Survey of Music in America
Credits: 4
From colonial times to the present, including various European influences, the quest for an American style, and the emergence of such indigenous phenomena as jazz. This course does not fulfill a music major program requirement nor does it satisfy the Fine and Performing Arts Discovery requirement for any music major program. (Formerly MUSI 511).
Attributes: FinePerformingArts(Discovery)
Grade Mode: Letter Grading

MUSI 406 - Country Music
Credits: 4
This course surveys the rich musical, cultural, and economic history of country music in the United States. Since its inception, country music has embodied a tension between tradition and progress. Country music thereby reflects a basic feature of the American story, valorizing our history while valuing social and technological development. Throughout the course, we consider this tension as it affects the musical content and cultural meaning of country music.
Attributes: FinePerformingArts(Discovery)
Grade Mode: Letter Grading
