Description

The Coaching Minor is an interdisciplinary curriculum designed to provide students interested in coaching at the youth, high school or college levels with basic knowledge and skills necessary for competence in coaching.

The minor consists of courses offered by several options within the Department of Kinesiology and Recreation Management and Policy.

The proposed coursework lays a theoretical and practical framework for students interested in coaching.

Admission into the minor is based on successful completion of SML 565 Principles of Coaching (grade of C- or better), and a minimum GPA of 2.0.

Sport Management Leadership/Sport Studies majors are not permitted to minor in coaching.
