

HUMAN DEVELOPMENT AND FAMILY STUDIES MINOR

<https://chhs.unh.edu/human-development-family-studies/program/minor/human-development-family-studies>

Description

The Human Development and Family Studies minor complements undergraduate majors in the social sciences, health professions, and related disciplines by providing students with the opportunity to learn about individual and family development, interpersonal relationships, and the ecological contexts of development.

Requirements

Code	Title	Credits
HDFS 525	Human Development	4
HDFS 545	Intimate Relationships and Families	4
Any three additional HDFS courses		12
Total Credits		20

Individual course grades must be C- or above, and the overall grade-point average for the 20 human development and family studies credits must be at least 2.0.