RECREATION MANAGEMENT AND POLICY (RMP)

Recreation services improve public health and wellness, promote sustainable environments, develop a sense of community, and enhance the quality of life of all citizens. Recreation professionals experience high quality of life and earn competitive salaries as they pursue meaningful work in diverse settings, including human services agencies, commercial businesses, resorts, health care providers, and natural environments such as parks, wilderness areas, and outdoor programs. Economic and workforce projections indicate that recreation service industries will continue to expand and provide numerous professional career opportunities.

The Department of Recreation Management and Policy has been a leader in recreation research and education for over 50 years. Our programs are nationally accredited by the Council on Accreditation of Parks, Recreation, Tourism, and Related Professions (COAPRT), the Association for Experiential Education (AEE), and the Committee on Accreditation of Recreational Therapy Education (CARTE) — an accreditation program under the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs (CAAHEP). The Department's curriculum supports a broadbased education and an opportunity to acquire specialized professional knowledge and skills in event and tourism management, community wellbeing and inclusion, and outdoor resource and program management.

Curriculum Structure

Students entering the major may choose an option in Tourism and Event Management ("TEM"), Outdoor Leadership and Management ("OLM"), or Therapeutic Recreation ("TR"). Each curriculum consists of a professional core, required option courses, and electives. Candidates for a degree in Recreation Management and Policy must satisfy all of the University Discovery Program requirements in addition to satisfying the requirements of each individual major option.

Professional Internship

A supervised internship (RMP 764 Internship) is required of all majors and serves as their major capstone requirement. The internship is designed to create a bridge between theory and practical application. Students, working with their advisers and the internship coordinator, select an appropriate setting based on their professional and career interests. They must register for an 8 or 12 credit full-time internship that ranges from 10 to 16 weeks under the supervision of a qualified professional. Specific requirements are identified in the Internship Manual available from the Department office.

Declaring a Major

First-year students entering UNH who wish to apply to the Bachelor of Science (B.S.) program in Recreation Management and Policy with an option in Tourism and Event Management, Outdoor Leadership and Management, or Therapeutic Recreation should contact the Office of Admissions. The admissions web site contains complete campus visit information and an online visitor registration. It also contains admission criteria and important dates, as well as an online application form.

How to apply for students transferring from within UNH

Outdoor Leadership and Management: UNH's outdoor leadership and management program prepares students for dynamic careers in outdoor education, adventure programming, outdoor recreation management, parks and protected areas management, youth and afterschool programming, and conservation. Our curriculum combines experiential learning in diverse outdoor settings with a classic liberal arts education. Students gain a solid foundation in the theories, philosophies and methods of outdoor recreation leadership and management while gaining skills in activities such as climbing, canoeing and backpacking. To change your major to OLM, complete the online change of major form. OLM applications are accepted throughout the year and decisions are made on a rolling admission basis. If you have questions about the program and event management option, please contact Nate Fitch (nate.fitch@unh.edu).

Tourism and Event Management: This option equips students with an entrepreneurial mindset and prepares students for career-track positions in tourism and event management organizations, emphasizing planning, leadership, and administrative concepts. Students learn to apply skills in settings such as destination marketing and management firms, resorts, residential facilities, community development agencies, and festival and event businesses. To change your major to TEM, complete the online change of major form. TEM applications are accepted throughout the year and decisions are made on a rolling admission basis. If you have questions about the program and event management option, please contact Sean McLaughlin (sean.mclaughlin@unh.edu).

Therapeutic Recreation: The Therapeutic Recreation option prepares students for work primarily in clinical, allied health facilities such as hospitals, rehabilitation centers, mental health programs, and extended care facilities as well as inclusive community recreation programs. Admission decisions are based upon the content of the online application as well as a personal interview with the therapeutic recreation option coordinator. Students must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.75 to be considered for admission into the major and it is highly recommended that students have completed or are enrolled in BMS 507 Human Anatomy and Physiology I or BMS 508 Human Anatomy and Physiology II at the time of application. To apply, we ask students to go through a short informational meeting with the TR Option Coordinator Matt Frye (matt.frye@unh.edu). TR applications are accepted throughout the year and decisions are made on a rolling admission basis. If you have questions about the therapeutic recreation option, please contact Matt Frye (matt.frye@unh.edu).
