

CLASSICS MAJOR: ANCIENT MEDITERRANEAN CIVILIZATIONS OPTION (B.A.)

<https://cola.unh.edu/classics-humanities-italian-studies/program/ba/classics-major-ancient-mediterranean-civilizations-option>

Description

The Ancient Mediterranean Civilizations (AMC) option balances language study with the opportunity for students to select from a wide range of courses covering many aspects of the Greek and Roman worlds, as well as the neighboring peoples in Europe, North Africa and the Near East. The flexibility of this option makes it especially attractive for students who wish to double major in another subject. It is generally not suitable, however, for those who wish to pursue related graduate study or a career in teaching Latin. AMC majors can, however, supplement the requirements with additional coursework to keep these options open.
