Description

The Educational Studies Major: Equity, Diversity & Inclusion (EDI) four-year program (B.A.) is for students interested in becoming teachers in elementary school settings.

The EDI major offers a Teacher Preparation Program leading to a pathway to dual certifications in Elementary Education (K-6) and ESOL (English to Speakers of Other Languages, K-12). Interested EDI students must apply to the Teacher Preparation Program. Only those who submit the application materials by the deadline (April 15th) and meet all the admission requirements are accepted into the Teacher Preparation Program. Graduates of the EDI Teacher Preparation Program will be eligible for NH teacher certifications in Elementary Education and English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL).

- Educational Studies Major: Equity, Diversity & Inclusion (B.A.)

A bachelor’s degree including a one-semester student-teaching requirement allows students to be recommended for licensure in certain specialized areas. Those areas are:

- Health and Physical Education Major (B.S.)
- Human Development and Family Studies Major (B.S.) - Child Development/Early Childhood Education
- Mathematics Education Major: Secondary Option (B.S.)
- Mathematics Education Major: Elementary/Middle School Education K-8 Option (B.S.)
- Music Education Major (B.M.)
- Theatre Major: Secondary Theatre Education Option (B.A.)
- Theatre Major: Dance Option (B.A.)

Requirements

See the Educational Studies Major: Equity, Diversity & Inclusion (B.A.) page for the requirements of this program.

For the specialized areas listed on the Description tab (i.e., health and physical education, human development and family studies, math education, music education, theatre and dance education), students must fulfill requirements for the major appropriate for the licensure being sought, in addition to the following core professional courses or their equivalent:
