Study Abroad in Dijon
The department offers a junior year and semesters abroad at the University of Burgundy in Dijon, France (see FREN 690 Study Abroad in Dijon France). This program is open to all qualified students at the University of New Hampshire who have completed, FREN 631 Advanced French: Reading and Writing-FREN 632 Advanced French: Listening and Speaking and FREN 651 Love, War, and Power in French Literature-FREN 652 Greatest Hits of French by the end of the semester preceding their departure. Early consultation with the director of the program is urged. Non-credit orientation meetings are required during the semester prior to departure.

Summer Study in Dijon
This program is open to all students interested in an immersion program during the summer. It provides four to eight weeks of intensive courses in French at the CIEF (Centre International des Études françaises) at the Université de Bourgogne in Dijon, France. A minimum GPA of 2.5 is required. Special fee. 4 to 8 credits. No previous study of the language is necessary to participate. Study in Dijon can satisfy the language requirement. Consult faculty of the French program to ensure proper placement. For French majors, the summer course can only satisfy the study abroad requirement of those who have documented academic reasons preventing them from studying abroad for an entire semester. By petition only.

Teaching Assistantship in France
Each year the French government offers teaching assistantships in French elementary or secondary schools for graduating students who have studied French. The application process begins during the fall semester of the senior year.
