RUSSIAN MAJOR (B.A.)

https://cola.unh.edu/llc/program/russian-ba

Description

The Russian program provides students with an opportunity to study one of the world’s most important languages, its literature, and its culture. In addition to the intrinsic value of Russian language, literature, and culture as a liberal arts experience, majoring in Russian leads to a number of careers, such as teaching, translation and interpreting, government, and the Foreign Service. The knowledge of the language and cultural proficiency is also a valuable asset in preparing you for careers in law, economics, and international trade. All Russian majors are strongly encouraged to double major or include a relevant minor in their studies. Check out our alumni stories here (http://cola.unh.edu/spotlight/llc).

If you would like more information please contact the program coordinator Arna.Bronstein@unh.edu. (Arna.Bronstein@unh.edu)

Requirements

New students will be assigned to the proper course after consultation with the Russian faculty. A student may not receive UNH credit for elementary Russian courses if he or she has had two or more years of secondary school Russian; however, a student may petition the Russian program to be admitted to the 400-level courses for credit. In the 503-790 range, a grade of C or better is required to advance to the next course in the language series (503, 504, 631, 632, 790).

The Russian major consists of a minimum of 40 credits above RUSS 402 Elementary Russian II. Specific course requirements are:
