

SPANISH (SPAN)

The Spanish program major and minor in the Department of Languages, Literatures and Cultures helps students develop Spanish language proficiency and an enhanced knowledge of the cultural and literary achievements of Hispanic societies around the globe. This dual emphasis on communication and cultural analysis prepares students to live in communities where Spanish is increasingly important professionally and personally.

In addition, the program offers courses in Portuguese. Students also have the option to complete honors in the major providing they complete the necessary classes and a senior thesis in Spanish.

The UNH study abroad program in Granada, Spain, open to majors and nonmajors, offers students the opportunity to live and study abroad for a spring semester. A six-week summer immersion program in Costa Rica also is available to students. Financial aid is available for eligible students. Visit cola.unh.edu/granada, cola.unh.edu/costa-rica, or contact the departmental program directors for further information.

Accelerated B.A./M.A. Program

The dual-degree B.A./M.A. program in Spanish in the Department of Languages, Literatures and Cultures offers high-achieving students the opportunity to earn both an undergraduate and a graduate degree during their time at UNH. Qualified students may be accepted into the program late in the first semester of their junior year and begin to take graduate courses in the spring of their senior year. Students graduate with a B.A. upon completion of 128 credits (including all University, College and Program requirements), and then complete graduate work (30 credits) the following year. After only five years of study, students earn both degrees.
