

BUSINESS & COMMUNICATION ARTS

---

The Department of Business and Communication Arts offers undergraduate programs in the following majors: ASL/English Interpreting; Business; Business: Accounting Option; Communication Arts (CA); CA: Advertising and Public Relations Option; CA: Cinema and Media Arts Option; CA: Digital Media Option; and CA: Human Relations Option. The department also offers a variety of concentrations and minors that help you specialize in these disciplines.

With expert faculty and a vast network of internship opportunities, the majors offer you the means to turn your passion into a profession. You'll develop a portfolio of practical skills and theoretical knowledge, coupled with applied experiences, leading to effective communication and leadership in a variety of disciplinary domains.

Through hands-on learning in our state-of-the-art classrooms, in the field, or in our specialized studios, you'll shape the social, creative, analytical, and technical communication skills you need for success in industries from media to business, healthcare, education, and more.

Programs

- ASL/English Interpreting
- Business
- Communication Arts
- English Studies
- English Teaching
- General Studies
- Humanities
- Public Service and Nonprofit Leadership

Faculty

Business Program Faculty

Communication Arts Faculty