

EDUCATION ADVOCACY MINOR

<https://cps.unh.edu/program/minor/education-advocacy>

Description

This minor introduces students to the issues associated with supporting individuals who have specific instructional needs. Students will investigate laws, mechanisms of communication, and specific accommodations associated with education of individuals with needs.

NOTE: This minor may not be declared with the following majors:
BS Human Services: Education Advocacy or BS Applied Psychology:
Education Advocacy.

Students will have the opportunity to:

1. Identify the instructional needs of individuals based on culture, race, ethnicity, or disability.
2. Communicate possible accommodations.

Requirements

All minor courses must be completed with a minimum grade of C-, and a 2.0 grade point average must be maintained in courses for the minor. Two courses must be at the upper level (600 or 700). Only one overlap is allowed between major and minor.
